Religious Unity In India.

It is pointed out as an instance of moslem toleration in India that in one of the Oudh districts a Christian congregation worships every Sunday a fine old Mahomedan Taluqdar, the late Jung Bahadur of Nanpara, in memory of his friend and skikkar

STARTED WITH $1,500 NOTE

Buckwheat Valley, Wisconsin, Becomes Prosperous Through Co-operation—What the Conference to Be Held in Louisville Really Is For.A program built with experts from the various departments of the State and National Government, is naturally quite an easy matter. To go out over the country and find people who are really doing things in their own communities, is quite another proposition.
This has been the task which the men who are handling the Conference for Farmers and Business Men have set for themselves this year.

Walter J. Shuford, North Carolina.

One of the most interesting men of this type in the whole United States is Walter J. Shuford, of Hickory, N. C.
He is one of those men who evidently dreams wonderful dreams, then rolls up his sleeves and works hard to make those same dreams come true. Way down in North Carolina Mr. Shuford saw how his friends and neighbors were limping through life on a worn-out soil that would not seemingly supply their wants. At last he found the man he needed in Field Agent Conover, and they began work to interest a group of men in a dairy proposition.
From a start that was made with a $1,500 joint promissory note with which to finance the creamery, it has grown year after year until last October, the total sales amounted to over $10,000. And it seems from the way in which things are growing that their co-operative organization will soon be handling a business that will total about $500,000 a year.One might write volumes about what has happened down in Catawba Valley in that Tarheel country, but it is enough to say that this man has changed the attitude and viewpoint of a county through his own enthusiasm.
He will be in Louisville during the Conference, April 7-8-9-10, to tell his own story and to demonstrate the methods that he used to organize and develop this tremendous business.

FAT OF THE LAND

Seven years ago Buck Wheat Valley in Wisconsin was almost bankrupt.
Two-thirds of her property was held in mortgages and the young people were drifting toward the city. Wheat, which in the early days had yielded 50 bushels to the acre, had dwindled to 15, and it was because of this that the people had to substitute buck wheat, hence the name of the Valley.Seven years ago Mr. William Head and Mr. Grover began organizing the people about the LaValle for developing the creamery work and standardizing the potato crop. To-day there is hardly a mortgage in this neighborhood, the homes are painted, new barns are being built, silos stand as sentinels all over the country. Mr.
Head and Mr. Grover will be in Louisville April 7-8-9-10, to tell how they lifted Buck Wheat Valley out of bankruptcy into plenty.

A GETTING TOGETHER

The seventeenth annual Conference of Farmers and Business Men which is to meet in Louisville, April 7-8-9-10, is a rather unique organization. It has absolutely no constitution or by-laws, no dues or conditions of membership. It is a loosely put together organization, which can easily shift its viewpoint or change its policy with the growth and temper of the people making up the membership for that particular year. It began its existence under the Southern Educational Board, which pays all the bills, and its President for sixteen years was that remarkable merchant of New York City, Mr. R. C. Ogden. He was one of those unusual men who can see not only the future in his own business, but also the future in other lines of activity. It has been the policy of this movement not to dictate what any meeting should do, but merely to helpConvincing and Unique Demonstrations Will Be Feature of Meeting

TWO ACRES OF FLOOR SPACE

Many Activities of Rural Co-operative Work Will Be Shown in Actual Operation—Parcel Postoffice Will Be Part of Exhibit at Louisville.A talk or a lecture may be thoroughly convincing and delightful, but a demonstration must carry absolute conviction. The demonstrations that will be used in Louisville in the huge Armory, April 7, 8, 9, 10, are sure to attract the attention of the farmers, their friends and neighbors who come to the Conference. A short list of some of these various demonstrations will probably give some idea of the wide scope of this meeting. Men who understand the business will develop real organizations for the handling (1) Poultry and Eggs; (2) Vegetables and Small Fruits; (3) Farm Products; (4) Dairy Products; (5) Live Stock; (6) Purchase of Farm Requirements, and (7) Co-operative Credit. In these organizations that will be developed, an effort will be made to show exactly how the testing, grading, standardizing and packing of all the various products is done. Directors for shipping, selling, the making of returns and the finding of markets will be made features of these demonstrations.Besides these co-operative organizations that have just been mentioned the United States Postoffice Department has arranged for space in which to equip a complete parcel post department. Instead of its being merely a dummy affair with an exhibit, parcels will be handled and sent out as they are in any great postoffice. Several of the large retail stores of Louisville will send their parcel post packages direct to this office instead of the main postoffice, so that there will be continuous work in handling the mail during the whole time the Armory is open for exhibition purposes. In addition to the handling of packages from the city to the country, experts will be present to show anyone how to pack eggs, butter and country produce of every type.
Very few people know very much about the parcel post as yet, and this innovation should prove a tremendous advantage to those visiting the Conference.

THE BANKER-FARMER

B. F. Harris, of Illinois.

It seems rather odd to find on our desk a new magazine with the above heading. It has always seemed to us as if the bankers and the farmers did not know each other as well as they should. In running over this splendid magazine, which is a monthly review of the State Bankers' Associations of thirty-seven states, their agricultural committees and the individual banker in agricultural matters, it seems to be most timely. It claims among its items of interest "public welfare, in connection with an effort to obtain and hold successful and permanent agriculture through better farming, marketing, education, roads, rural life and credits.All the wide-awake folks who meet at the Conference for Farmers and Business Men in Louisville to discuss rural matters during the four days, April 7, 8, 9, 10, will have a chance to hear the editor of "The Banker-Farmer," Mr. B. F. Harris, of Champaign, Ill. He is not only the editor of this strong, clean publication; but he is, also, the very successful vice president of the First National Bank of Champaign and chairman of the Agricultural Commission, which was developed under the auspices of the American Bankers' Association.Railroad Rates.
The railroad people of the South have been quick to see the tremendous advantage of quickening interest in rural life through the Conference of Farmers and Business Men in Louisville.
